The screenshot shows the homepage of the Apprenticeships Scotland website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the logo 'APPRENTICESHIPS.SCOT' and the tagline 'From Skills Development Scotland'. The navigation menu includes 'ABOUT', 'BECOME AN APPRENTICE', and 'FOR EMPLOYERS'. Two prominent buttons are 'FIND A VACANCY' and 'ADVERTISE A VACANCY'. The main content area features a large image of a young woman with a blue lanyard. To the left of the image, the text reads 'STILL AT SCHOOL?' followed by 'Step out of the classroom, get work experience and get qualified with a Foundation Apprenticeship in S5 or S6.' Below this is a green button labeled 'FIND YOUR FOUNDATION APPRENTICESHIP'. To the right of the image, a teal box contains the text '552 APPRENTICESHIPS AVAILABLE TODAY' and 'START YOUR SEARCH'. Below this text are two input fields: 'Keywords' and 'Postcode or town', with a 'SEARCH' button. At the bottom of the page, there is a section titled 'Featured vacancies' with four placeholder cards, each containing the letters 'MA'. A 'Feedback' button is located in the bottom right corner. The browser's address bar shows the URL 'https://www.apprenticeships.scot/'. The Windows taskbar at the bottom displays various application icons and the system clock showing 10:09 on 07/05/2019.

How to Prepare for the Jobs of the Future

Raj Ramesh

Work is about to change forever.

In fact, the change has already begun.

Skills 4.0

- 2 out of 3 children starting primary school will have jobs that don't exist today.
- What we do and how we do it will change
- Technological change is picking up speed but we are struggling to keep up
- The answer: to keep learning

Skills 4.0

Technology can replace much of our mental and physical work but...

It is our uniquely human qualities that will allow us to thrive

Skills 4.0

The image shows a screenshot of a YouTube video player. The video content features a vibrant, abstract background of colorful, swirling dust or smoke in shades of blue, purple, yellow, and red. Overlaid on this background are six white rectangular boxes, each containing a skill name in a different color: Creativity (orange), Feeling (purple), Integrity (blue), Learning (green), Collaborating (orange), and Curiosity (blue). The video player interface includes a search bar, a 'SIGN IN' button, and a progress bar at the bottom. Below the video, the title 'Future jobs and industry: responding to the speed of change' is visible, along with 25,283 views and engagement icons for likes (93) and comments (5). An 'Up next' section shows a preview for 'Skills 4.0: Thriving in the future' by Skills Development Scotland with 9.2K views. The Windows taskbar at the bottom displays various application icons and the system clock showing 10:35 on 07/05/2019.
